PRICE FOUR CENTS.

PERSONAL.

C. H. J.—A LETTER FOR YOU AT STATION G.
JENNIE M.

CONNECTICUT UNION SQUARE, THURSDAY, November 16.—Why do you not write me? I must send to you; how am I to be sure it reaches your hands?
I should like to give it myself; I remain at the same place as before. I have no time now; I have been very busy of late; and in justice remember if you found no refinement and taste you did find perfect truth and good faith.
"SOUTHERN."

COME BACK JONES, OR GIVE ME AN INTERVIEW.

EDWARD DESMOND, OF RIDGEWAY, IRELAND.—
Any information of the above person will be thankfully received by his brother, James Desmond, Woodbridge, N. J.

FRIDAY DEC. 7. 4-10 TRAIN FROM JERSEY CITY.

With the name of the station where he stopped, address a note to the gentleman whose conversation will be over, and in justice remember if you found no refinement and taste you did find perfect truth and good faith.

INFORMATION WANTED.—OF JOSEPH ADAMS, A SON OF Captain Joseph Adams, late of New York City; September 18, 1856. He left New York in July last, and was never seen again. Last heard from at about the date of his departure. December 22, 1866. In which he stated that he was then in a vessel loading guano for England, and hoped to be home before Christmas. Address to the Master of the Sailor's Home, Liverpool, care of Captain Channing.
Address W. W. De Forest & Co., New York.

IF THE PERSON WHO HAS THE NAME OF STEPHEN SIE-HEN C. MESSMILL, PLEASE LET ME HAVE IT. I HAVE GONE ON AND ON WITH A LETTER ASKING FOR IT, BUT NO ANSWER. ADDRESS TO T. J. MORRIS, Mario's Hotel.

IF THE PERSON WHO TOOK A TRUNK YESTERDAY evening from the coach of Mario's Hotel will return the papers and photographs to T. J. MORRIS, Mario's Hotel. He will confer a great favor. Send through Post office.

MRS. W. MILLER, LATE OF ST. DENIS HOTEL,
New York—Now for you. Send address to box 420
Herald office.

SATURDAY MORNING, ONE O'CLOCK—YOU DID not receive me where you said, New York, very early. Will be at the Masonic fair, corner of Grand and Crosby streets, Tuesday (Dec. 12), and tomorrow, from 11 until 12. Do come over to my room.

THE LADY WITH VELVET CLOAK WHO GOT IN
at a store at Lord & Taylor's, and went to the Monday morning, about 11 o'clock, will she grant an interview to the gentleman who sat directly opposite? Address Charles Henry, station D.

WILL THE LADY IN PUR CAPE, BLACK ALPACA
and black silk stockings, with a black bow, twenty-second street, be kind enough to tell us where she is going on Friday evening? Will party who waved her off to Broadway appoint an interview? Address M. O., Herald office.
